             THE DEPUTY COURT CLERK: All rise.
 2
             (Open court begins at 11:04 a.m.)
 3
             JUDGE MARTINOTTI: Good morning, everyone.
 4
             JUDGE GOODMAN: Good morning.
 5
             JUDGE MARTINOTTI: Counsel, appearing telephonically,
 6
    can you hear us?
 7
             THE DEPUTY COURT CLERK: One moment, please.
 8
             JUDGE MARTINOTTI: Okay.
 9
             (Brief pause.)
10
             JUDGE MARTINOTTI: We are on the record. Before we get started, it's about 20 after 11:00. Due to a technical 11
12
    issue, the phone-in capability was not able to be engaged and 13
    those that appeared by phone are unable to hear this 14
    proceeding. The Court apologizes to them for the technical 15
    mishap.
16
           That being said, welcome. Counsel, Judge Goodman and I 17
    welcome you this morning. Please put your appearances on the 18
    record.
19
             MR. CECCHI: Good morning, Your Honor. James Cecchi, 20
    Carella, Byrne, liaison counsel on behalf of plaintiffs. And, 21
    again, we do apologize for the technical issues. I have no 22
    idea why we couldn't get that to work, but we will advise the 23
    normal and usual coterie of plaintiffs' counsel of what 24
    occurred here today.
25
             JUDGE MARTINOTTI: Thanks.

7	JUDGE MARTINOTTI: Welcome.
8	MR. LEWIS: Good morning, Your Honor. John Lewis for

10	MS. BENEDICT: Mollie Benedict also for defendants.

13	MR. MURDICA: Good morning, Your Honor. Jim Murdica
14	for defendants.
15	MS. WEIN: Good morning, Your Honor. Aviva Wein for
16	Johnson & Johnson.
17	JUDGE MARTINOTTI: Welcome.
18	Before I get started today, I thought I would begin
19	with a brief overview of the status of the litigation, some of
20	which is known, some of which is unknown but will soon become
21	public.
22	Both myself and Judge Goodman have been very involved
23	in this matter. We've held monthly status conferences. We
24	have addressed and resolved numerous discovery issues. Let me
25	correct the record. Judge Goodman has addressed and resolved

-IN RE: INVOKANA-

many discovery issues. We both were overseeing the bellwether selection process and set up an aggressive trial schedule. While that matter was proceeding through discovery, there was also a confidential settlement program and conferences being held and administered by both Judge Goodman, myself, and settlement counsel.

So, in essence, what we had existing were two tracks. We had the litigation track under the capable stewardship of litigation counsel, who is here today, and I thank you for that, proceeding through litigation. And we had a settlement track being shepherded through settlement or resolution counsel, and I thank you for your efforts.

With the consent of both plaintiff and defendants, the Court was engaged in the settlement discussions pursuant to an initial order wherein the Court was permitted to have ex parte conversation with both parties, as long as it addressed settlement issues.

With that background, I am very pleased to announce the resolution of the vast majority of the cases subject to the MDL as well as many non-MDL cases.

As I said earlier, concurrent with the efforts of resolution counsel were the efforts of litigation counsel, and through the combined efforts this matter has been resolved.

There were numerous reasons for the resolution of the MDL within less than two years of being transferred to this district, including the active day-to-day work of the parties through discovery, bellwether selection, and trial selection. The attorneys on both sides did their jobs efficiently, effectively, civilly, and represented their clients well. This was not an easy task for the Court or for counsel.

Again, the Court thanks Janssen's resolution counsel
Jim Murdica and his team for a tremendous effort. The Court also thanks the plaintiffs' leadership team and PSC, many of whom have put their appearances on the record here this morning, for their diligence and oversight in this process.

Both parties bought into the resolution process and again worked well with each other and the Court. Though I can't stress enough that the resolution process really worked in tandem with the litigation process, and I think but for the dual tracks this matter may not have been resolved.

The Court understands that just over 57 percent of the cases and claims related to these coordinating proceedings and approximately 80 percent of all filed claims have been resolved and/or dismissed, or will be dismissed, and additional settlements are occurring on a daily basis. The Court also understands from the parties that approximately less than 20 percent of the filed MDL cases remain.

Though most of the cases have been resolved, as counsel is well aware, there's still much work to be done, especially for those who are presently in settlement discussions with

-IN RE: INVOKANA-

Janssen's counsel for which a final resolution has not yet been reached. I urge the parties to continue in good faith discussions in these cases as well as cases similarly situated so hopefully they, too, can resolve.

The Court is also mindful that there are new cases being acquired and/or filed and many of these cases may present problematic issues, including the lack of detail about the claims or medical issues alleged, statute of limitations defenses or legal challenges related to certain labeling changes that the product has undergone. I'll explain how these cases will be handled in a moment.

The Court directs Janssen and its resolution counsel to continue working to resolve cases that are in queue as well as those lining up based on the same resolution and criteria used to date. This should be done as expeditiously as possible, and I would like to be updated regularly on the status and emerging issues.

That can be done on an as-needed basis, but as I will say in a few minutes, we will have and will continue to have monthly status and case management conferences that are set forth in CMO No. 22, but please look on the docket to make sure that the case is still scheduled. We are scheduled, I believe, through the end of December. I anticipate in the fall we'll set a schedule out further through the end of next year.

-IN RE: INVOKANA-

The Court also directs that plaintiffs' counsel engage in the process with Janssen to devote all appropriate and available resources to obtaining the necessary medical records specific to each plaintiff's claimed injuries to allow counsel to submit the case for review by Janssen's team.

The Court understands that some plaintiffs' counsel have been remiss in collecting and/or submitting medical records. Unfortunately, those counsel are probably the ones that are on the phone not hearing this. I hereby direct any such counsel to allocate the appropriate resources to this endeavor. This is important and confers a direct benefit on your clients.

I'm going to ask plaintiffs' counsel to paraphrase this paragraph to counsel, who would have appeared telephonically, to remind them that it's in their best interest and their client's best interest to work with Janssen to try to resolve this matter and to follow up with any document requests and other loose ends that need to be tied up before resolution can be produced.

Janssen is also directed to continue reviewing submissions in good faith and to ensure that it is adequate staffing to review these changes as they are submitted.

Janssen is to report any problems in this regard to the PSC leadership counsel so they may attempt to assist in resolving any issues before they are brought to the attention of the Court. The parties are directed to report the progress of this process and issues, concerns, or problems that are unresolved plaintiffs slash claimants affiliated with the MDL to the court on or before October 15th, though we will probably have a status prior thereto.

In light of this Court's familiarity with the scientific and legal issues in this case, the bellwether process, and the great success of resolution leading to the resolution of such a large volume of claims, the Court has determined that it is appropriate that I will retain jurisdiction and enter an administrative order similar to those utilized in other successful mass tort cases, such as Vioxx under the leadership of Judge Fallon, Pradaxa under Judge Herndon's leadership, and YAZ under Judge Herndon. I'm going to take a bit of credit for that. I worked with Judge Herndon on YAZ as a state court judge and we utilized these orders in resolution of that litigation as well.

It is the Court's determination that the implementation of this order will further the goals of these proceedings and will ensure the timely evaluation and resolution of pending and future filed MDL cases.

There will be two groups of cases moving forward:

Those that were filed before today, August 16th, will be one group. They will be called existing cases. Those that are filed today, or moving forward, will be newly filed cases.

-IN RE: INVOKANA-

The administrative order, once entered, will have certain medical record preservation and discovery obligations that must be satisfied on an aggressive timeline to facilitate, whether by way of settlement or dismissal, a speedy resolution of future filed cases in this MDL and of currently pending cases that are not part of the pending evaluation and negotiation by counsel for Janssen.

In light of the ongoing submissions and negotiations with counsel for Janssen, the order that I will be entering will stay application of all obligations for currently pending cases until October 30th to permit those firms that have already engaged to begin or have initiated resolution to discussions with counsel for Janssen an additional time to complete the discussions.

Considering the resolution of so many cases and the claims to date and the need to wind this MDL down, the Court views such an administrative order and it necessary under the unique circumstances of this MDL. It affords litigants their day in court, yet affords the defendants some window of certainty. We have made excellent process in the past two years and I expect the parties to continue to work with me following the implementation of the order and compliance with its deadlines to ensure that the goals of these proceedings are promptly and efficiently achieved.

Again, counsel, I thank you for your efforts, your ability to think outside the box, to work with each other, to work with the Court, issues that came up. This was a highly technical case, yet the discovery was resolved through Judge Goodman, whether it be a conference, telephone conference or otherwise. I appreciate litigation counsel moving the ball along. I believe that was an impetus to the settlement as well and, of course, resolution counsel in working in good faith with all the parties.

MR. CECCHI: Judge, I just want to note, I think all the parties -- I can speak for the plaintiffs -- thank Your Honor and Judge Goodman for your case management and able guidance of this MDL. I think it illustrates what can get done in the short period of time with cooperation between the parties and the Court. Thank you.

MR. LEWIS: On behalf of defendants, Your Honors, we would echo that sentiment. And, again, thank you, Your Honors, for all of the effort and work you put into this litigation.

JUDGE MARTINOTTI: Thanks.

MR. LONDON: Your Honor, I want to acknowledge we will follow up with a directive to notify plaintiffs' counsel on the medical records and certainly, as Mr. Cecchi indicated, plaintiffs in the PSC, Mr. Grand, Mr. O'Brien, Mr. Seeger, we all appreciate the Court's time and truly commitment to this case. Those monthly status conferences, the trial process,

-IN RE: INVOKANA-1 the discovery process, your commitment to this and our clients 2 and the plaintiffs, the PSC in the interest of counsel is 3 appreciated and I think it's recognized and this is the result 4 in two years. 5 MR. MURDICA: And I just want to say for the record, 6 Your Honor, without the Court's help we wouldn't be where we 7 are today, and so we're very grateful on our end. And the PSC 8 is as zealous as any lawyers that I've encountered but equally 9 professional, and I would like to thank them for their work 10 throughout this process. 11 JUDGE MARTINOTTI: Okay. We are off the record. 12 Back on the record. 13 MS. BENEDICT: Do you want to cancel the status 14 conference for next week? 15 JUDGE MARTINOTTI: Yes. The status conference for 16 next week will be canceled. 17 JUDGE GOODMAN: I just wanted to add and chime in 18 with what Judge Martinotti has said, I mean, there are a lot 19 of very contentious issues that have been raised in this case 20 and resolved in this case by the counsel that I know I never 21 had to see. And the issues that I did see were the ones that 22 were really vetted and narrowed and even then we were able to 23

MS. CHAWLA: Thank you, Your Honor. It's a pleasure

work them out in a very professional way. And I really appreciate that.
